Thomas Meighan in "The Easy Road"

After years of toil that had brought success, he found the lure of play-time too enchanting. So the Easy Road became the Primrose Path, and he reached its end to find himself wifeless and broken. Was there any way back? Come and see! A story that leads through the storm to the rainbow's end.

Famous Singer Here Tonight

The Reinald Werrenrath concert will begin at 8:15 in the Columbia theatre this evening. The doors will open at 7:30.

It was stated today that many good seats are available and the Ladies' Musical Society sincerely hopes that there will not be a vacant seat in the theatre when the noted Metropolitan Opera singer opens his concert.

Mr. Werrenrath was due to arrive on an afternoon train from the East and is sure to get a cordial reception by local music-lovers tonight.

SAFETY

That word SAFETY is real.

It is true.

Because, backing up every dollar we loan is sound, tangible real estate.

Our business has to be conducted that way.

Our charter provides real estate as the only security we can take for a loan.

And every great student of business and values agrees that LAND is the soundest form of value.

So when we say SAFETY, we mean SAFETY—and we are fully entitled to use this word.

Farmer Has Close Call When Wagon Is Wrecked By A B. & O. Engine

Oscar Barklow, farmer of Dogwood Ridge, had a close call from being killed at Slocum Station, about 6:30 this morning, by the B. & O. passenger train which leaves here about 6 o'clock each morning, when his wagon, loaded with chiders, was wrecked and Barklow was thrown some distance. He suffered slight cuts on the head, arms and back and was badly shaken up. The train crew thought he had been killed as the wagon was totally wrecked.

Barklow is hauling chider from Slocum Station to Dogwood Ridge, where road repairs are being made. He had loaded his wagon from a car on the B. & O. siding at Slocum and was on his way to Dogwood Ridge when the accident happened. He was crossing the track at Slocum and failed to hear the train approaching until he was on the track. He then urged his team in an effort to get across. The team and front part of the wagon were across the track, but the engine caught the rear end of the wagon, wrecking it.

Mr. Barklow was taken to his home in a machine and Dr. J. W. Hutcheson of Sciotoville, E. & O. surgeon, was called to attend him. An examination showed no bones were broken and only slight cuts and bruises. The cuts were probably caused by the chiders. The horses were uninjured, although they were pulled over by the wagon.

STALE BLOOD AFFECTS FEELINGS

Pepto-Mangan Makes Red Blood, Restores Healthy Glow

It is gradually, very gradually, that the effects of weakened blood become apparent. Generally there is a feeling of lassitude. It is a harmless, lazy heaviness, and the complexion becomes muddy.

Guido's Pepto-Mangan is the very first thing a woman should think of taking for a stale-looking complexion. It drives out the poisons that ruin complexions.

But it is not only the effect that Guido's Pepto-Mangan has upon the complexion that makes it so valuable. New healthy blood causes an improvement in feelings, a return to the usual style of enthusiasm, a sensation of warmth and glow, an appetite that eagerly awaits eating time.

Guido's Pepto-Mangan makes new blood. It comes in liquid, or tablet form, both having the same medicinal value. The full name, "Guido's Pepto-Mangan," is on every package.

THEATRICAL

"Twin Beds," The Fountain Head of Joy

"Twin Beds," the one exhilarator beyond the power of the kill-joys and gloom-vendors to suppress, will be here in the near future with its brilliant store of mirth, dispensed by a company of farcure, among whom, many are prime favorites with local theatre-goers, who remember with pleasure visits by these players on previous occasions and look on them and "Twin Beds" as an inseparable whole, a combination surcharged with an overabundance of brilliant from which the comedy flashes in every syllable, rocking an audience with convulsive laughter till they welcome the lowering of the final curtain in realization that there is no other avenue of escaping laughter so continuous that the audience is completely exhausted.

This engagement is for the Sun Tuesday night, and Wednesday matinee and night. This is not a moving picture.

Sun Tonight Only HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied, with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known down-town druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally, and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through the hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair appears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color, and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. —Advertisement

Breaks Out Of Jail; Falls Into Arms Of His Jailer

"Here I've worked like a beaver only to fall into your arms" was the remark made by John Patton of New Boston Sunday morning about two o'clock after he broke out of the jail by going through the roof and then slipped down the roof into the waiting arms of Deputy Marshal Ray McCormick.

Patton is a grocer on Rhodes avenue New Boston and was arrested Saturday night by Deputy Marshal John Henry on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. About midnight Deputy McCormick heard Patton at work tearing the woodwork from the ceiling of the jail. McCormick went around to the back of the jail and patiently awaited the arrival of the prisoner. He did not have long to wait for Patton soon tore through the tin paper roof after getting through the ceiling. Today he paid a fine of $10 after entering a plea of guilty to the charges against him.

"Handcuffs or Kisses"

THOMAS EDGELOW'S BRILLIANT STORY

Starring

ELAINE HAMMERSTEIN

PRESENTED BY LEWIS & SELWICK

Gala holiday week program starts tonight at the Eastland theatre with beautiful Elaine Hammerstein in her newest and best picture "Handcuffs or Kisses," something to think about—Miss Hammerstein is fast becoming the screen's biggest star. Be sure and see her in this picture.—Matinee daily.

PROGRAM:
A—"The Wanderer"—a Reelcraft Scenic.
B—Harold Lloyd in "Crack Your Heels."
C—Screen Snapshots—the stars as they are at home.
D—Selwicks presents Elaine Hammerstein in "Handcuffs or Kisses."

A strong dramatic story with a swiftly moving plot, a popular star, massive settings and much intense action are promised at the Eastland theatre tonight when Elaine Hammerstein's latest Selwicks picture, "Handcuffs or Kisses," opens a three day engagement.

The story, by Thomas Edgelow, tells of the trials, the suffering and the almost hopeless fight of a young girl who is unjustly committed to a state reformatory to girls. As pictured in Mr. Edgelow's story, the treatment meted out to the inmates of such institutions is none too good and the hardships experienced by Miss Hammerstein, as Lois Walton, form the foundation upon which the star has built a dramatic achievement that will be remembered as among the best of her career.

The story first appeared in "Young's Magazine," and because of the timeliness of the subject matter, it scored a decided success. Just at that time the Bedford Reformatory was reeking with disorder and after a riot or two the State authorities began a sweeping investigation which resulted in some startling disclosures. It is believed that Mr. Edgelow's story, "Handcuffs or Kisses," was inspired by the sensational development at Bedford, many of which would themselves provide splendid dramatic material for the screen.

An appealing love theme is woven into the story which provides Robert Ellis with a leading part that adds much to the enjoyment of the entertainment.

What Are The Symptoms Of Eye Strain?

That is a pretty hard question to answer, as there are so many of them, and they vary so in different cases. And often the evidence of strained eyes may be noticed almost anywhere in the body, and very little in the eyes themselves. But anyone who has headaches, nausea, dizziness, pains in the eyes twitching lids, has ample reason to submit to an examination here. We don't say these annoyances are caused by eye strain, but that they MAY BE, and often are.

Revival Is Well Attended

The revival at the Mahert Road church is well under way. The Lord is blessing in unusual ways and showing forth his power tremendously. At the Portsmouth Baptist church, the evangelist is surely at his best for God. He gives forth the word of God with liberty and much freedom. Saturday evening two, they brought the message from the text, "Thou Shalt Die and Not Live."

The prophet Hosea, sinned against God. The Lord sent him the warning that he should die and not live, that man prayed earnestly to God and fully repented of his sin and the Lord forgave and added to his life fifteen years.

If we confess and forsake then and come to God he will have mercy and pardon.

Sin is blighting and damning people by the thousands and sending them to hell.

Caress, Kick In Recall Vote

Non-Partisan Officials Are Ousted In North Dakota, While Program Is Upheld

(By NEA Service)
BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 20.—North Dakota's state recall election has dealt the Non-Partisan League a kick and a caress at the same time.

For a Non-Partisan governor, attorney general and commissioner of agriculture were recalled, ousting the league from the executive branch of the government.

But the League's industrial program was unshaken, despite vigorous attempts to nullify measures providing for a state bank, state mills and elevators, rural credits and a state home building association.

And while the League's executives were recalled by average pluralities of 4,000 the League's program was upheld by a plurality of 6,000.

Post-election developments are: NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE heads predict their organization will come back into power next year, saying the new executives cannot carry out the league program satisfactorily.

NEWLY ELECTED officials threaten a probe of alleged graft by Non-Partisan League state officials.

POPULAR dislike for the bitter fight that has raged since the advent of the Nonpartisan League and its opponent, the Independent Voters' Association, may lead to the formation of a third party.

This third party will seek to combine the best of the Nonpartisan League and the Independent Voters' Association. In the words of its promoters it will help the people "escape from the clutches of the politicians and secure progressive government without strife."

The Nonpartisan League it is understood will not contest the recall, but will save all its energies for the coming campaign. Plans will be laid at the coming state convention.

But, unofficially, the League says the recall was illegal. It charges that Canadian citizens, bankers, bond men and "babes yet unborn" signed the recall petition. It says the recall campaign was financed by the grain and banking interests.

The Independent Voters' Association denies this and charges it had 80,000 names on its petition and submitted only 74,000. It declares its campaign fund was small and subscribed entirely within the state.

IRONTON MAN DIES IN AUTO CRASH; OTHERS HURT

Curve Near Wheelersburg Is Scene Of Fatal Accident

Samuel Robinson, 40, unmarried, of Ironton, was time wealthy race track follower of that city, was fatally killed, today, when he was driving a Buick sedan, which he had just purchased, on the curve near Wheelersburg, when a seven passenger Willys-Knight passenger car driven by Mulligan turned over on the curve.

Following the accident Miller, the Shore brothers and Mulligan were brought to the Portsmouth jail and held for investigation on orders of Coroner J. D. Hendrickson. About 7:30 Sunday morning the four men were released on bonds of $250 each with orders to appear for an inquest in an attempt to place responsibility for the death of Robinson.

According to Deputy Sheriff Frank Bennett and Al Richards who accompanied Dr. Hendrickson to the scene of the accident, the four men taken into custody were well under the influence of liquor, their condition leading to their detention at the jail.

Deputy Sheriff Bennett has a quart Mason jar of moonshine which he claims was found in a pocket of the overcoat worn by the dead man. The officers were told that others in the party had concealed a bottle or two in the woods along the fence, but a search made by the local officers, Miller, the Shore brothers and failed to produce the bottles. Robinson was in a big machine owned of Ironton. Irvin Shore had been with the other men it is claimed at a cock fight held down in Kentucky Saturday night. The five men in the wrecked machine left ahead of Irvin Shore who came to Portsmouth with a local man who was at the chicken fight.

Irvin Shore continued his homeward trip after leaving his friend here and when he reached the curve this side of Wheelersburg recognized the wrecked machine as his own. A few minutes later he met relatives of Mulligan who were coming to Portsmouth, they having heard of the accident a few minutes after it happened. One of the party in the wrecked machine had telephoned Ironton relatives from a nearby farmhouse following the accident. Irvin Shore was told of the death of Robinson and the arrest of his brothers and friends and he returned to the local jail with the other Ironton men and finally arranged for the release of his brothers, Miller and Mulligan.

According to Dr. Hendrickson and Deputy Sheriff Bennett the four men arrested claimed they were going at a fairly good rate of speed when they hit the curve, Mulligan driving off the paved roadway onto the barn, on the south side of the road. When he attempted to turn back onto the paved road he wheels on the right side of the car caught on the concrete curb and caused the big machine to turn over. Robinson was in the rear seat and when the machine turned over his head was caught under the back of the driver's seat. The back of his skull was crushed in like an egg shell. Adams Shore had a very narrow escape from meeting a like fate. His head was also under the back of the front seat and when the machine overturned, according to Shore something seemed to hold the car up a second and then it settled down, Shore jerking his head to one side as the machine settled. Mulligan suffered a broken left arm and wrist when that member was caught in the steering wheel.

John Dins and Albert Nagel, farmers were among the first persons on the scene. The men were taken to the Nagel home where D. G. M. Andre of Wheelersburg attended Mulligan. When Mulligan was brought to the jail Dr. Albert Berndt was called to attend him. He complained of severe pains about his chest and it was first thought that he had suffered an injury to his ribs. An X-ray taken at Fowler's laboratory failed to show any ribs injured. Mulligan sustaining injuries about the chest when he was thrown heavily against the steering wheel.

The machine was left upside down on the roadside Sunday afternoon, the hundreds of Ironton fans who came down by automobile viewing the wreck.

The farmers notifying Coroner Hendrickson and Deputy Sheriff Bennett had to drive down to Sciotoville in order to get to a telephone to call Portsmouth officials.

Miller, the Shores, Robinson and Mulligan are all well known in Ironton. Adams Shore has been employed as custodian about the Ironton mayor's office and jail. The others have been connected in some way with the saloon and cafe business in Ironton.

Robinson was at one time considered very wealthy, winning much money at the race tracks. He had lost all of his fortune and is now said to be almost penniless.

Hunt Says He Is Convinced It's The Best

"After taking a few bottles of Tanlac I'm convinced it's the best medicine in the world, for the results in my case were simply wonderful," said George V. A. Hunt, 205 Revaline St., Akron, Ohio.

"Stomach trouble had gotten the best of me and for a year I had been going down hill steadily. I suffered dreadfully from constipation too, and was nervous, and restless and what little sleep I got seemed to do me no good."

"I can eat anything I want now, my stomach is in apple-pie order and I sleep like a log every night. I have gained considerably in strength, too, and feel like a different man in every way."

Tanlac is sold in Portsmouth by the Fisher & Stretch Pharmacy and by leading druggists everywhere.

SOCIETY

Judge Ben Lindsey of Denver, Colorado, who is to deliver a lecture in the High School Auditorium Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Woman's City Club, originated the plan of putting delinquent children on their honor and sending them unattended to the Industrial School at Golden, Colorado. It is said that only five out of many hundreds of boys ever betrayed this trust. In addition to being the originator of the Colorado juvenile court laws, Judge Lindsey has the distinction of putting through the first contributory delinquency law against adults, holding negligent parents and employers accountable in the state of Colorado. His lecture will be of interest to every man, woman and child in Portsmouth and it is hoped that he will be greeted by a capacity audience. Members of the Woman's City Club will be admitted free to the lecture, and non-members will be charged fifty cents admission.

Department Managers' Sale

A Sale in which every special has the personal guarantee of the buyer

Yes, this is rather a novel sale. It is just a little different than most sales where many items are listed under the firm name. This is a sale in which every buyer names his own specials and comes out in print, personally, in their behalf. You may be sure that no Department Manager will attempt to take any liberties with the buying public because they can readily check up on him. If any article is not up to a standard or price down to what it should be, every customer can know just who to blame. This condition naturally is a great impetus to make Department Managers go their limit in providing good things for our patrons.

My Cloth and Fur Coat Specials Are Noteworthy

In spite of the mild weather many folks have been buying from this lot of one hundred new coats which I purchased specially for this sale. In the assortment you will find the most desirable fabrics, shades and models. The special prices range $32.75, $42.75, $49.50 and $50.50.

FUR COATS, always attractive and desirable winter garments for women, should not be overlooked. The Cooney Coats at $39.50; the French Seal Coats at $79.50 and $85.00; the Laskin Seal at $95.00 and the Laskin Seal with skunk opossum collar and cuffs, at $135.00 are values that appeal to all women.

An Unusual Sale of Fine Dresses

These are meeting the public demand for good values and low prices. Many fine models including Cacons, with crepe back, tricotines, and the like, made up in snappy styles, in values to $75.00 for $34.75.

Here Is A Skirt Sale Worthy Of Attention

I made a big buy of new skirts in the popular Prunella stripes and plaids, in regular and extra sizes, in models that are very appealing. The values range to $15, and for easy choosing we have sorted them into three lots, priced at $4.98, $7.98 and $9.75.

Sale Of Women's Bathrobes

Here is a very special item and we understand folks have been buying them to give at Christmas time.

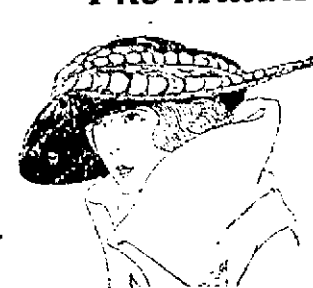

WOMEN'S GEM BEACON BATH ROBES, cut full, in assorted, attractive patterns, very special at $4.98.

My Sale Of Baby Apparel Pleases The Mothers

I am offering a sample line of babies' long white coats, all of fine materials, neatly embroidered, in values to $11.00, now special at $4.98 and $6.98. WHITE SILK CAPS, in a sample line of cute styles, worth to $2.50, your choice 98c and $1.49. KNIT SACQUES, special 98c. BOOTEES, in the 50c grade, for 39c.

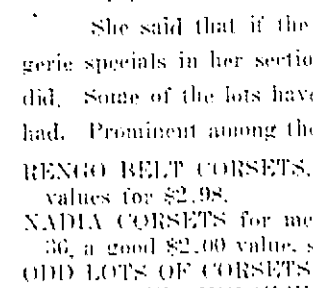

The Millinery Sale Is Proving Popular

This is not a sale of cheap hats but a disposal of fine hats at very low figures. I am offering a sample line purchased way under price especially for this Department Managers' Sale, and you will find good models in trimmed hats, at $3.00, $5.00, $7.50, $10.00 and $15.00. BANDED HATS, for a special time, at $5.00 and $7.50. UNTRIMMED HATS on sale at $3.00, $5.00 and $7.50.

Miss McConnell Was Right

She said that if the ad. man would give prominent space to the corset and lingerie specials in her section, folks would come in, hurrying to get them. And they did. Some of the lots have been closed out but some of the best ones are still to be had. Prominent among the important offerings are the following:

RENGO BELT CORSETS, for stout figures, our style 36, pink brocade, 6 supporters, sizes 24 to 36 in $4.00 values for $2.98. NADIA CORSETS for medium and stout figures, our style 126, made of pink corail, 4 supporters, sizes 24 to 36, a good $2.00 value, special at $1.69. ODD LOTS OF CORSETS and FERRIS WAISTS greatly reduced. PHILIPINE "UNDIES" in a sale of attractive garments, purchased specially for this sale, which includes gowns and chemise, at $2.98, $3.98, $4.98 and $5.98. SILK UNDERWEAR, made of extra heavy crepe, in chemise, bloomers, vests and step-ins, special at $2.98.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, women, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—Don't you think the citizens of this city, as well as any others, should make laws (and have them enforced) that will put immoral conduct in the same class as any other crime? Is it not an awful sin in the eyes of God? Read the ten commandments. If we had had a strict law, and officers that would enforce it, the tragedy of the past month, doubtless would not have occurred, and a young man would not have to give up his life, which under the circumstances, is unjust. What we need is law and officers who will enforce it regardless of who is the transgressor. I warrant there would be less divorce cases, and we mothers would feel more able to raise our children as God would have us raise them. Let us try and wipe out some of the sins of Portsmouth and make it a better and safer place to raise our children. At the present we can hardly take our children out for a drive without being blamed for some of the sins that are going on.

A MOTHER

All the laws in the country won't make bad men and bad women good. You can force them to obey laws and rules to a certain extent, but that is not making them good by a long way. There are virtues, such as justice and charity, which are exercised in our relations towards others; but there is no such thing as collective virtue which can be practiced by a community whose individual members do not possess it in any manner or degree. For this very reason the attempt to develop the qualities of citizenship without regard for personal virtue, or to make civil utility the one standard of moral excellence, is doomed to failure. Integrity of life in each citizen is the only sure guarantee of worthy citizenship. There should be no need of legal enactments to improve our social relations, and there will be none, if only we act on the principle that each of us is in duty bound to set good example. Society no less than its individual members is subject to God's law. Neither convention nor fashion can justify sin. And if we are prompt to remove the cause, or bodily disease, we must be just as energetic in banishing moral contagion. We should always keep in mind that each in his or her own social sphere has a mission to perform, sometimes by condemning what is wrong, but always doing what is right. It is the eloquence of deeds that convinces where words are of no avail. The man you speak of says he would not be where he is today if he had been given a chance in life. His parents separated when he was a mere child and he was turned out in the world to care for himself. Had they remained together, and brought him up in the way he should go, he would not have committed the crime he did. Ninety per cent of the crimes that are committed today can be traced to the homes of the criminal. If men and women were taught to obey the Ten Commandments and practice the Golden Rule from childhood up, there would be no need of prisons. Both the manners and morals of young people in every age and generation have been the subject of adverse criticism on the part of the older folks. So much is left to the discretion of young people themselves, so little of supervision is either offered or admitted, and so reckless and insouciant is the attitude of both old and young, that morals as we understand them, must necessarily be degenerating. It makes no difference what sphere you enter, whether the club, the theatre or the dance hall, the morals of the age. Things are said and done for the amusement of supposedly respectable people, which I dare say twenty-five years ago, would have brought the proprietors before the courts of criminal correction. There are some who, in apology for these things, suggest that it is more honest and more democratic to so please the public, even in this inferior way, than to have the public resort to the obscenity that veiled the vices of other years. But I do not believe in the ingenuitiness or the sufficiency of the apology. However, until we can have better homes, better fathers and mothers, and better sons and daughters, I believe we should have a standard of morals, and we should have some one to uphold and protect that standard. Also there should be a larger measure of protection thrown around our younger people.

Dear Miss Wise—I am coming to you for some of your good advice, because I know that you have just tender sympathy and understanding. I am married but I just can't endure my husband. Isn't that a pickle to be in? He treats me like I did not exist. He ignores me all the time except that he does say that I am a good cook, and at meal time he really acts like a human being. I feel as though I cannot stand his treatment much longer and I now ask you what I shall do to make life more pleasant for myself, my husband and my child. Dolly, I know you are not bothered about men, but please tell me how to handle mine.

WORRIED WIFE

You do not tell me how your husband mistreats you, except that he ignores you. That in itself is not such a bad crime, especially when you say that you cannot stand him. No doubt he knows this and feels that he will give you a dose of your own medicine. Remember that he is your husband and the father of your child, and he is probably as good as the majority of husbands. None of them are angels, you know. If you devote as much time trying to make your husband love you again, and not hold towards him those thoughts of hate, you will no doubt have a happy home. The fact that he compliments your cooking shows that he has some spark of respect left for you. Maybe that is all you do for him that deserves mention. Now what you must do at once is to make him compliment you on other things. Make him love and "pet" him a little. I'm sure he'll fall for that. Do not complain on your own all the time. Have your home, yourself and your child neat and clean and teach your child to love his daddy. Try the kind way for awhile and see if it doesn't work wonders in your home.

CONFESSIONS OF A MOVIE STAR

CHAPTER XXXI—CISSY PLEADS FOR MY LOVE

WAS Cissy a fatterer? I had heard so. I tried to interrupt his monolog several times, but he would not have it so. His next appeal was one to intrigue the heart of any romantic maid:

"May I need you so? I haven't been able to say that I love you because I've said that to several girls. But I must say what I have not said seriously to any other. I want to marry you because I want to take care of you. You need somebody. And I'm perfectly selfish. I need you. And, believe me, if you trust me, I will be true."

"I'm so sorry—so sorry—Cyrus!" That was the sum of my refusal. "I can't explain, Cyrus, except by repeating that I'm not ready for love—or marriage."

"If you are—when you are—you'll be my take a chance?"

"You may?" I spoke sincerely. "Meanwhile, let's be good pals?"

"That's settled!" And Cissy looked so grateful I simply had to change the subject.

"You were a peach, last night, Cissy. Mother and I haven't words to tell you how grateful to you we are!"

"Night then I remembered that I hadn't given Cissy sufficient credit for his share in rescuing me from the plotters. I thought only of Dick's response to the call of the meadow. And somehow I felt that I didn't need a husband to protect me as long as Dick was in the company. That might be for years.

Whether the hero or the bad man would be made the next star, had become the bet of the week. Cissy had done wonderful work opposite me. He was superb, and I could see for myself that we wouldn't be permitted to play together much longer. I was sorry because Cissy had learned to do the best trying love scenes without upsetting my nerves. He now kept his lips tightly for real life. And he was so perfectly handsome that any attached girl would have been delighted to think him hopelessly in love with her own sweet self.

Dick Barnes had made a big hit with the powers from the first. He had had one play with Hildegarde Coleridge in which he took the honors away from the star!

Dick's work was so fine that the directors had to cut out a lot of perfectly stunning celluloid. Coleridge insisted. He is an Englishman and a very good sport, too, and he admitted that Dick's work was cracking, but business is business, and he was the star and he wasn't going to stand for was cut. And so the bets as to who would be the next star were increased in his favor.

One worry continued to harass me: Althus couldn't very well have stellar roles and I didn't see how Dick could play anything else.

It was polished, suave, exquisite. He could deliver the most exclusive and disconcerting headlines, whether sweethearts or wives, into the most startling and unnecessary indiscretions. How he could convince an audience that Mephistopheles had nothing on him!

I did not like to think about Jimmy Althus as playing Dick Barnes' parts. I couldn't understand how he could "get inside" such frightful characters unless he had lived through much evil.

Real Raisin Pie

Men are quickly refreshed at night by a dessert like this

- 2 cups Sun-Maid Seedless Raisins
- 2 cups water
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1 tablespoon corn starch

Wash the raisins, put in a saucepan with 1 cup cold water and bring slowly to a boil. Add sugar, salt and corn starch, which has been mixed with 1 cup cold water. Boil 3 minutes; add lemon juice. Pour in pie tin which has been lined with crust, while hot cover; brush top with cold milk and bake in moderate oven until brown.

Great Mid-Day Pie!

—it revives spent energies and puts new vigor into your afternoons

TRY one down-town, at your restaurant or lunch counter, after a hard morning's work and you are tired.

First note how luscious, then how it "sets you up."

A glass of milk is all you need with this pie for a good light lunch.

For the raisins furnish 1,500 calories of energizing nutrient per pound.

Their nutrition, being in practically pre-digested form, gets to work at once, and you can feel the energy it imparts.

The iron in the raisins then builds up the blood and promotes a vigor that is permanent. You need but a small bit of iron daily, yet that need is vital. Get it from raisins.

There's a recipe here for your wife to try at home. Or ask for pie like this down-town today.

Delicious raisin pie is sold by groceries and bake shops everywhere. Buy of them to serve home baking. Real raisin pie is made with lots of raisins. Insist on it. First-class bakers and restaurants don't stint.

Eczema and Tetter Due To Impurities In The Blood

To Get Absolute Relief You Must Clear Your Blood of Waste Products

The blood is the means by which all the tissues of the body are directly or indirectly nourished. You will at once realize that unless the blood is pure, some part of the body will become diseased. Eczema, skin diseases denote with unfailing certainty a weakened and impure state of the blood.

To correct the basic trouble—waste products—the blood must be purified. Don't clog your blood. Just clean it out. Nature will do the rest. Pure, rich, red blood nourishes the body and fights off disease.

S. S. S., the standard blood purifier and system builder, is the ideal remedy for skin eruptions. The effect of S. S. S. is to rid the system of the waste products which are causing the trouble.

For over 50 years S. S. S. has proven to be of untold merit. Don't take S. S. S. today and write for 50 page illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free.

Germany

come to our support," he said. "We can not expect it. But if France is to remain alone and face the situation which I have described, you must not deny her what she wants for her security."

France Must Have Moral Support
Premier Briand said he should be the last man to impede "the noble endeavors" of the conference, but added: "A moral disarmament of France would be very dangerous. It would be most unjust. The time has not yet come. We have need to know here that France still has good will. The true conditions for a moral disarmament of Germany lies in this: The fact that it should be known over there that France is not alone. If it is known that France is not alone, peace will come back much quicker and words of revenge will simply be preached in the wilderness."

France, the speaker said, would do everything possible in the present situation and would not hesitate to open conversations with the German government. France, he added, had need to feel the assurance of the moral support of her recent allies in the war. Reiterating France's devotion to peace he declared the day had not yet come when total land disarmament was possible. Expressing confidence that the world would understand from his exposition the real situation and motives of France, because nothing could be more honest than to oppose the purpose of the armament conference, the premier pledged France would do her part so far as she could without closing her eyes to her national security.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 21.—(By the Associated Press)—Aristide Briand, seven times prime minister of France, held the arms conference in a rapt hour today, with the world for his audience, while he told of the need of France for a large army.

Oak Hill High Has Pep

It is not often that a good football team can be organized in a village the size of Oak Hill, but Edward Lloyd of Cornell University, coaching the high school boys has finally whipped them into what is conceded to be one of the strongest high school teams in southern Ohio.

Eight games have been played this season with no defeats. The strongest team played is Wellston High school. The boys put up a fine game employing the visitors by a wide margin.

Too much cannot be said of their backfield, composed of Miller, Pastor, Morgan and Edwards. Miller, their quarterback is a bruiser with an enormous head and always finding the weak spots in the opponents' line. He is a fast man, making his gains on end runs. Morgan, a great runner having weight behind him for a line plunger and the speed to get under a forward pass. He is also an infallible goal kicker. Pastor the other half-back, is a letter man from Hughes high school, Cincinnati, and his enthusiasm and cheerfulness put the pep into the boys that keeps them going even when things are looking hazy. He is a great line plunger, and is hardly ever stopped by his opponents without making a nice gain for the team.

Edwards is the fleet-footed fullback. Although he is one of the smallest men on the team he is first on his feet and a good side-stepper. He hardly ever fails to make a good gain. He is a leader to the captain of the high school team of 1920.

While the line is small and generally plays against a heavier team they never think of defeat and it is unusual when they fail to make a hole for the backfield.

The team is scheduled for a game with Gallopis on Turkey Day, and although they will probably miss their turkey, as they will be visitors to Gallopis, all trust that they will get a good slice of the bacon.

Salts Fine For Aching Kidneys

We Eat Too Much Meat Which Clogs Kidneys, Then the Back Hurts

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged, and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to the finest clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

SUFFERED SEVEN LONG YEARS

Finally Relieved by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

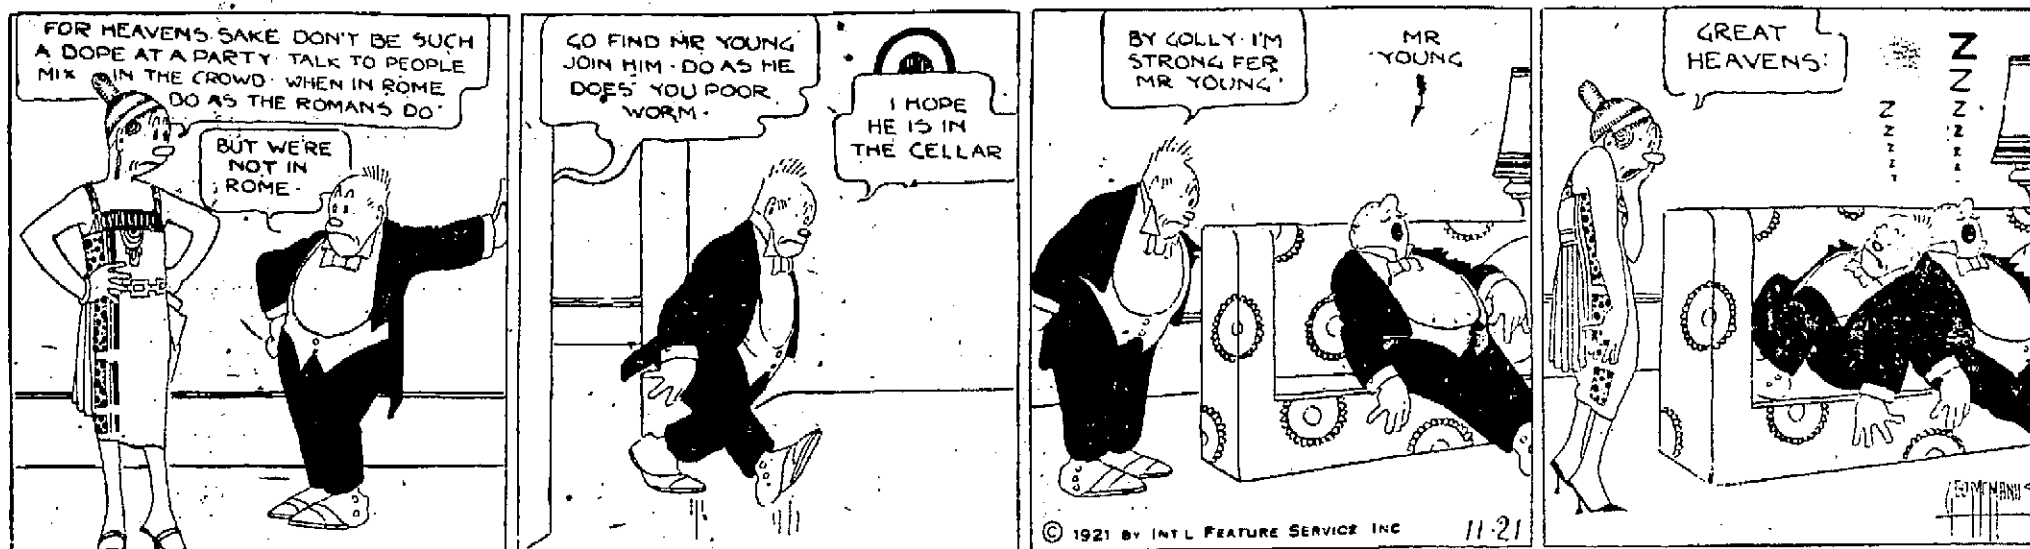

Ravenswood, W. Va.—"For seven long years I suffered from a female trouble and inflammation, that was so bad that I was unable to do my housework. I consulted several doctors but none seemed to give me relief. I read in a paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I decided to try it, and found great relief so I continued using it until I had taken eight bottles. Now I am very well and can do my own housework. I can gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine to suffering women."—Mrs. BERTHA LITTING, R. F. D., Ravenswood, W. Va.

GAMBLERS TAKE OVER TANKS AND ENGINEERED DEAL WHEREBY THREE RINGERS JOINED TEAM TO BEAT PORTSMOUTH

It was learned on good authority today that four well known Ironton men engineered the deal whereby Hammond, Blevins and Shannon were to play with the Tanks. As soon as they were assured they had arranged this, they sent $5,000 here to bet on the Tanks. They said they would bet on

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR UP UGLY, BROKEN OUT SKIN

Any breaking out of skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickly by applying Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. "Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation."

Mentho-Sulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment of disfigurement. A little jar of Mentho-Sulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.—Advertisement.

Portsmouth if the two teams presented the same lineup as they did in Ironton three weeks ago. In other words, the Tanks allowed the gamblers to re-camp their team for their own personal gain. And this is the real truth of the matter.

These men had the ringers worked with Ironton all last week so Hammond could learn the signals as he took the pivot job away from Trotter. Or, to put it more plainly, Huntington supplied the brains for yesterday's battle and Ironton the beef, yet Ironton will crow about beating the Blue and White team.

But crowing will not get their portion of yesterday's receipts. And where do the Ironton players get off who play for the sport of the game and are mere figure-heads or ballast as it were.

"The total receipts of Sunday's game repose in the big safe in the Smoke-house."

The management contends that Ironton willfully violated its written contract and will not be given a penny of the money. The Blue and White team has engaged the services of an attorney and will fight their contention down to the last ditch.

Ironton knew about the contract and broke it deliberately. A number of business men of that city remarked here yesterday that it was not money they were after, but to defeat Portsmouth.

"Why we have a hammerlock on you or we would not be here. We are not taking any chances whatever," Herman Sallee, a leading citizen of Ironton, remarked here yesterday. "Why everybody in Ironton knew Hammond, Blevins and Shannon were to play," Sallee said.

It is also said that these three players received their money for playing before they left Ironton. The hat was passed in Tanktown and all the town dunks kicked in. They would empty their weekly envelope to beat Portsmouth.

"As one man sagely remarked today: 'The Tanks pulled off a regular White Sox stunt yesterday and got away with it. They would turn any kind of a trick to win.'"

Several of the Ironton gamblers stated openly yesterday that the team had three ringers and that they would show Portsmouth something.

Big Damage Suit On Trial
Trial of the damage suit of David E. Altman against James C. Davis, former Director General of Railroads, was begun before Judge Thomas and a jury in Common Pleas court Monday morning. Altman claims he was injured while in the employ of the defendant at the N. & W. shops at East Portsmouth on Nov. 7, 1919, when a heavy tank fell from a truck and crushed his leg which later resulted in amputation of the limb. He alleged negligence on the part of the defendant and sued to recover $25,000 for the injury. The defendant denied all blame of negligence in connection with the injury inflicted and declared the accident resulted in an altogether different manner than claimed by plaintiff.

The jury that is hearing the case is composed of T. M. O'Connor, L. W. Baker, Edmund Klecker, Edna M. Streich, Clara Waller, S. B. Samson, Louis Schoettle, John W. Spriggs, Herman Miller, John Jones, C. A. Zoll and Thomas Thompson. The opposing attorneys are B. F. Kimble for plaintiff and Bannan and Bannan for the defense.

Bulk Of Estate Left To Son

A will executed on July 7, 1920, by the late William B. Wagner, noted herb doctor, who died recently at his home in this city, was filed for probate Monday. Under the terms of his will, Wagner left his widow, Mrs. Sarah Wagner, 111 Market street, the sum of $1, in addition to the property and money given her in settlement of her property rights at the time of her separation and he bequeathed to his grandson, Harry W. Wagner, his gold watch and chain besides sufficient money to pay his school expenses for one year. The residue of his estate, including the herb business and property at 522 Second street, he left to his son, Harry J. Wagner.

Attorney W. L. Dickey and Dr. A. L. Test were witnesses to the will.

Ingrown Nails Will Turn Out

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night. "Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.—Advertisement.

DRIVES INTO AN OPEN DITCH

An overhauled touring car driven by Walter Hayes of Ohio avenue, New Boston, plunged into an open sewer ditch on Third street, west of Jefferson about 11:30 o'clock Saturday night when Hayes drove the machine to the left of two danger lanterns instead of to the right. The machine went over a pile of dirt and through a lot of bricks near the top of the ditch and then the front end plunged into the ditch. The front wheels and radiator were down in the ditch. Hayes and two boy friends who were going to the West side were not injured and the windshield of the car was not even broken. When the auto was pulled the machine back to the street Sunday it was found that only the engine had been slightly damaged.

Contractor Charles Seeley who is constructing a sanitary sewer, says he had three red lanterns on the ditch. Hayes says he noticed the two red lights near the center of the street and as there was more room on the left side of the street he decided to drive on that side. He failed to see the pile of dirt on account of rain on the windshield.

Moonshine and Guns Bad Combination

Fred Nelson, Fred Crabtree and Willie Howell were pulling off some wild stuff on Harrisonville avenue New Boston Sunday afternoon when they were taken in tow by Marshal Frank Hall. According to the arresting officer the three men had been out on the pike and had "cranked" on moonshine and as they came in Harrisonville avenue Howell had a 38 revolver which he would discharge in the air every few steps. According to Marshal Hall the men would take several drinks and then fire the gun several times and they repeated the "show" several times before Marshal Hall loaded them in the "auto patrol" and took them to jail. Within a 7-minute period more than ten calls were received at the Mayor's office from residents along Harrisonville avenue complaining about the actions of the trio. Nelson and Crabtree are charged with being drunk and disorderly while Howell who is about 21 has about five charges to face including the carrying of concealed weapons, possessing a half pint of moonshine, drunkenness, disorderly conduct and discharging firearms inside the corporate limits.

Anticipate Real Musical Treat Tonight

Portsmouth musicians tonight will have the pleasure of hearing a singer who has thrilled Metropolitan Opera Company audiences in New York City when Reinhold Werrenrath appears at the Columbia theatre under the auspices of the Ladies' Musicales of Portsmouth. Mr. Werrenrath is a baritone of a wide reputation and an audience that would tax the capacity of the Columbia theatre should hear him when he presents an artistic program this evening. The Ladies' Musicales has worked hard to bring some of the best musicians of the country to the Portsmouth City and they are expecting the music lovers of the city to turn out in goodly numbers tonight to show their appreciation of this work. Mr. Werrenrath has been adjudged one of the finest artists now before the public and it is a real treat for Portsmouth musicians and lovers of better music to have a chance to hear him. The members of the Ladies' Musicales will judge tonight by the audience that turns out tonight this famous baritone whether or not Portsmouth intends to support the plan for better music.

WILCE SAYS PASS LEGITIMATE

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21.—After seeing moving pictures of Saturday's football victory of Illinois over Ohio State, Coach J. W. Wilce, of Ohio State, announced at noon today that in his opinion the disputed forward pass which resulted in the lone Illinois touchdown was perfectly legitimate. Coach Wilce declared that a very careful and scientific examination of the motion pictures shows that the ball hit Captain Myers of Ohio State, but did not touch the ground before Walquist caught it and ran several yards to the goal line. Captain Myers, of Ohio State, admitted today that the ball struck his head while he was on the ground. Coach Wilce and other Ohio State athletic officials declared that the motion pictures give an optical illusion of the ball striking the ground twice. This, it was explained, was caused by the ball turning rapidly in the air. Had the pictures shown the ball grounded, Coach Wilce announced last night that he probably would make an unofficial protest of the play to the game officials. Coach Wilce and other university officials attended a special run of the pictures at noon today. The pictures were run culture-slow for the first time, and were repeated time and time again until the Ohio State men were convinced that the winning Illinois play was perfectly legitimate. Later Coach Wilce told newspaper men that he would have the Ohio State university official photographer make "still" pictures of the play.

BOY IS ACCIDENTALLY SHOT IN ABDOMEN

James Callahan, 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Callahan of 2814 Gallia street, was accidentally shot about eight o'clock Sunday night while at the home of a boy friend and is in Hempstead hospital in a dangerous condition. The lead ball of a 22-calibre rifle went through the abdomen and punctured the intestines in several places. It is feared that complications will develop. The lad remained in a critical condition all night and today.

The Callahan boy was at the home of his cousin, Woodrow Vaughn, on Norfolk avenue, at the foot of Rhodes avenue. The Vaughn boy had the rifle and was demonstrating the workings of the gun when it was discharged, the Callahan boy being in the path of the bullet.

It was taken home, where Dr. J. W. Fitch attended him. Later he was rushed to Hempstead hospital and operated upon. The bullet is lodged in the muscles of the back.

Hollbrook Pleads Not Guilty

Edward L. Hollbrook, 36 years old, former electrical engineer, pleaded not guilty under three indictments of obtaining money under false pretenses when arraigned in Common Pleas court Monday and Judge Thomas fixed his bond at $7500. He is accused of obtaining $6000 from W. R. Sprague, George Moore and William S. Harris several months ago in connection with the sale to them of three automobiles which later proved to be stolen property.

The father and brother of the defendant who have been in the city for several days, it was stated, have made arrangements to make restitution and to secure the release of the accused on bond.

Hollbrook was arrested in Canada and returned here several days ago to meet the charges, which allege that he sold Sprague a Marmon auto for $2700, a Buick to Moore for $2100 and a Chandler to Harris for $1200 and the machines were later claimed by the original owners from whom they were stolen in Chicago.

Attorney Edgar G. Millar represented the defendant and Judge Blair appeared for Sprague, Moore and Harris.

"WHY KIDS LIE"

"Why Kids Lie" will be the subject of Judge Ben B. Lindsey's lecture in the high school Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Woman's City Club. Judge Lindsey is one of the most noted men on the list of the Brough Bureau, and is acknowledged as a leader among practical sociologists of America.

An analysis of the cause and effect of juvenile delinquency has been made by Judge Lindsey, and the result of his findings is an education worthy of the study of everyone who has at heart the uplift of humanity. While bringing home with great force the truths which he is well prepared to give, he intermingles humor and pathos in such a way that great emphasis is added to his arguments. Those who have followed Judge Lindsey's career of twenty-one years on the juvenile bench of Denver, Colorado, will be interested to know that his local lecture will include his own experiences in Denver, told in a plain and unvarnished fashion. Members of the Woman's City Club and Senior Class of Portsmouth and Sciotoville High Schools will be admitted to the lecture free and non-members will be charged 50 cents admission.

Tender Hearts.
"Yes," said the old timer of the Bar-C ranch, "this here civilization out of the East has got into our best society like a regular plague. Used to be when we caught a skunk with two legs it pushed himself around, we could do it him according to our sense of fitness, but lately our boys is getting so tender-hearted that when they catch a predatory unresistant lopin' over in line with a citizen's boss, we don't do nothing to him except just bang him."

MOTHER!

Your Child's Bowels Need "California Fig Syrup"

Hurry mother! Even a sick child loves the "fruit" taste of "California Fig Syrup" and it never fails to open the bowels. A teapoonful today may prevent a sick child tomorrow. If constipated, bilious, feverish, fretful, has cold, colic, or if stomach is sour, tongue coated, breath bad, remember a good cleansing of the little bowels is often all that is necessary.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

Mrs. B. F. Wakefield and Mrs. Charles Ankrim have returned to their home at South Point, Ohio, after a week-end visit with Mrs. J. B. Mackay and daughters of Ninth street.

An important meeting of the Henry Grattan Council of the American Association for the Recognition will be held in the Library tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members of the Association and non-members who are interested in the cause are cordially invited to be present. A feature of the meeting will be a musical program arranged by Mrs. Samuel Horchow. The meeting will be free and it is hoped a large crowd will be present.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kalb of Third street was the scene of a merry surprise birthday party Saturday evening in honor of the tenth birthday anniversary of their daughter Dorothy. The little miss was sent out on a grand errand and when she returned she found the house filled with friends and playmates. The diversions of the evening were games and music, after which refreshments were served by Mrs. Kalb and Mrs. Joseph Fussnecker. Those present were Anna Louise Keller, Ruth and Esther Scheid, Jessie and Forest Kalb, Earl and Paul Kalb, Stella Davis, Angeline and Helen Selson, Mabel Coriell, Katherine Fussnecker, Hazel Hopper, Raymond Kalb and Dorothy Kalb. All departed at a late hour wishing the little hostess many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Evans entertained with a rabbit dinner last evening at their home, 802 John street, for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Elwell of Sciotoville, who left today for their new home in Alliance, Ohio. Others present were Miss Isabelle Krause, Mr. Roy Powell, Doris and Paul Evans.

Mrs. Henry Dusham of Sciotoville received word today that her niece, Miss Ruth Hunsen, will be married in Denver, Colorado, Thanksgiving Day to Mr. William Howard Dever of that city. Miss Hunsen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hunsen, former residents of High street, this city. Mr. Dever is an electrical engineer.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brehmer of Chillicothe were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Monrad of 917 Eighth street.

The Junior W. W. G. Girls of the First Baptist church will meet this evening at the home of Miss Eunice Newman, 816 Gay street. Group No. 2 will have charge of the program.

Miss Doris Schlichter of Third street has gone to Washington, C. D., to attend the funeral of her uncle, Mr. Samuel Schlichter, who died Saturday following a short illness with pneumonia.

Mrs. F. V. McDonald and daughter, Edna of Rushtown have returned from Columbus, where the latter underwent a throat operation. Dr. C. M. Mooney performed the operation.

Mrs. Albert Zoolner will arrive home tonight from a month's stay at the Hotel Olympia, Mt. Clemens, Mich., where her health was greatly benefited.

The King's Sons and Daughters of Trinity church will be entertained in the home of Mrs. Arthur Oakes, 1645 Seventh street, Friday evening, Nov. 25. The assisting hostesses are Mrs. Levi Compton, Charles Brasie, Pearl Newland, Carl Harris and Charles Werneck. A programme has been arranged and a large attendance is desired.

Mrs. Florence C. Upmeyer, chairman of the W. M. A. of the United Brethren church, was in the city Monday. She will visit Oak Hill, Jackson, South Webster and Coates this week.

Forty Hours Devotional Services At Holy Redeemer Well Attended

Sunday the cheerless weather of the last few days gave way to inspiring sunshine which attuned the spirit of the people to the beautiful devotion of the Forty Hours' Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. The inspiring music of church choirs, the simple beauty of church adornment, the devotional singing of the choir, the inspiring words of the missionary, the impressive communion service, the solemnity of marching, singing and scattering of flowers by three hundred vested officiating priests, together with reverent devotion of the large attendance opened in august manner the most holy and majestic devotion with which holy Mother Church is enriched. The spirit of Christian faith which has adorned the church of God during two thousand years in the profession and preservation of Christ's humanity and divinity whole and entire, amidst the world's religious doubts, divisions and unbelief concerning the human and divine natures of Christ is most refreshing and consolingly exemplified by the Forty Hours' Devotion. The superhuman faith like unto the faith of Mary and Joseph of the angels, shepherds and Magi kneeling and adoring the Christ-Child, wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. His divine Nature hidden, His human Nature revealed, still survives intact, vigorous and productive of Christian unity and highest moral excellence. As the heavens and the earth joined in faith and adoration at the crib on that far away first Christmas morn, so in the Catholic church of today the world over, there is the counterpart of that same devotion, adoration and prayer in which the Blessed Trinity.

Are Held To Grand Jury

The preliminary hearing of Ernest Phillips, 18 years old, and Kenneth Lamlin, 18 years old, both of Fullerton, charged with highway robbery, in Municipal court Monday afternoon resulted in Judge McCall holding the accused for grand jury action under $1000 bond each.

The young men were accused of holding up and robbing Richard Benson of a small sum of money on north Chillicothe street about 9 o'clock Saturday night, a short time before they were rounded up by W. E. Wallace, M. L. Burks, Don Wakefield and held till the arrival of the police. Benson identified the prisoners as the ones that held him up. The defendants were also charged with robbery John Sheppard, a Cincinnati young man, whom they met up with Saturday night. Sheppard failed to appear at the hearing and this complaint was dismissed.

Attorney E. E. Fullerton of Greenup, represented the accused.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Baptist church, New Boston, Thursday evening 7:15 p. m. Every church should be well represented to offer their thanks to God for His bountiful blessings bestowed upon his followers.

Rev. P. E. Britton preached to a crowded house Sunday evening, Nov. 20, standing room was at a premium. The auditor gave a fifteen minute talk on some of his experiences among the Georgian Bay Indians, he exhibited some relics he had gathered years ago, that were made by the squaws and Indians, and also sang in Indian language. The subject for his evening sermon was, "Is the Young Man Safe?"

In part he emphasized concerning the mystery that is in the heart which no man can describe until it is revealed by the boy matures to manhood. Moses when but a baby boy laid in a basket dabbled with pitch, in the river Nile. He was no farther than thousands of babies in the homes of Israel. A little helpless thing but in that basket were the undeveloped genius of power that made Moses to stand before kings as a mediator of the Hebrew Nation and the lawgiver of the world.

Yonder we see a little boy about twelve years old, and in a little linen coat which his mother made, moving about the sanctuary as he attended the priest in the Jerusalem Temple. He was but one of the thousands of boys in his day among the Hebrew children, yet the undeveloped power which revealed caused him to be the greatest prophet of the Hebrew nation and the founder of the school of the Lord. Our boys of today are to be the men in future years but what kind of men? It is up to the parents of today to rear their children upon the nurture and fear of the Lord. Two converts were the result of the services of the day, one in the morning and one in the evening.

The union Thanksgiving service for New Boston will be held in the Lutheran Baptist church Thursday evening at 7:15. The four pastors will have charge of the service and one of them will deliver the message. An invitation is extended to fraternal organizations, city officials, etc., to attend.

Yesterday was a great day with the Lutheran Baptist church. The congregations were large. The songs were bright and the whole movement an enthusiastic affair made so by the presence of the spirit of God. Several conversions are reported and many accession to the church. Rev. D. E. Miller was at his best with strong and virile messages.

The meetings will continue this week the song service opening at 7:15. The piano, organ, violin and cornet will continue to support the congregation in song. Special song numbers will be arranged from time to time.

The subject this evening, "Nauman and the Leper." Time 7:15.

The Red Cross workers will visit the homes this week for memberships of New Boston. The pastors and Sup. of schools unite in emphasizing the need of this arm of service being supported in our midst.

The Daughters of America will meet this evening, in regular session at Davis hall on Gallia avenue.

The Woodman Circle will meet tomorrow evening in regular session at Davis hall on Gallia avenue.

There will be a social and entertainment given Thursday evening by the Woodman Circle in the Davis hall on Gallia avenue. Admission 10c. Everybody invited.

Miss Loren Huffman of Wheelersburg was the weekend guest of Miss Gladys Huffman of Harrisonville avenue.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of this Hamburg tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoonful at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless—advertisment.

WEST SIDE

The funeral service of Mary Jane Easter of Buena Vista was held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 with a large attendance of friends and neighbors who tendered to pay their tribute of love and respect to her. She had been a resident of Buena Vista and vicinity nearly forty-five years and her many friends held her in high esteem. She was an active member in the M. E. church since girlhood until her health and age deprived her of that pleasure.

No Conference Rules In West Virginia Football; Players May Play For Money

The Times today called up the president of Marshall College at Huntington to learn if it were true that Hammond played with that team and Shannon with the Morris-Harvey school team.

He stated this was true and that one day they played with their respective college teams and the next day with some professional teams.

"In West Virginia we have no conference rules and the players may play with any team," the President said this morning.

"Do you mean to say that a Marshall College or a Morris-Harvey player can play with his own team today and a professional team tomorrow?" was asked of the Huntington president.

"Yes, unfortunately this is true. We will try to have conference rules next year, but at present any of our players are eligible to play with any team through the week just so they play with their own team on Saturday."

Can you beat this?

Say Illinois Pass Saturday Was Grounded

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21—Much interest was evidenced here today in the claims of some Ohio State followers that Illinois defeated Ohio State in their annual football game here last Saturday by a touchdown on a forward pass play that was completed after the ball had been grounded.

Motion pictures of the game, displayed at a downtown theatre last night, showed clearly that after the ball had been passed it struck the ground twice before it was scooped up by Walquist, of Illinois, who then ran several yards for the only touchdown of the game.

Coach Wilce made arrangements to see the pictures at a private showing today and "stills" of the play were being taken from the motion picture film.

The Ohio State coach indicated that while no formal protest probably would be made on the play, the photographic proof would be called to the attention of the men who officiated at the game. Coach Wilce declared that immediately following the play, Ohio State players had asked the officials whether the ball had grounded, and were told it had not.

That is the way we saw it," declared Wilce when informed of the tale told by the moving pictures of the play, "but the officials whom we engaged to represent us saw the play differently, and, of course, their ruling goes, although it is not a little satisfaction to us to know that the touchdown was not legal and that the whole aspect of the game was changed by the play. I shall certainly see the pictures today, and will communicate to the officials what the pictures show."

Despite the tale told by the moving pictures, Ohio State officials declared today that the Illinois victory probably would stand.

BREAK CONTRACT; ALL BETS ARE OFF

Trouton did just what was expected of her when the Tank management borrowed Blevins from the Ashland team and Shannon and Hammond from Marshall college of Huntington.

Frankly speaking Shannon and Hammond played the whole game for the Tanks and if they had not been in the line up the Trouton eleven would not have scored. The fans looked surprised when Blevins, Hammond and Shannon walked out on the field. Their names are not included in the eligible list and the Tanks were smart enough to know that they could not win with their regulars, the names they certified to the Smoke House management.

Because the Tanks deliberately broke their contract binding the two teams to eligible lists all bets were declared off by Referee Roberts. The Tanks said they would bring their own team with the exception of North and Hall of the Lombards. Instead they borrowed three players, who gave them just enough offensive strength to win. If the Smoke House management pays the Tanks more than $50 and their expenses after deliberately breaking their contract the team deserved to be beaten yesterday.

Coach Fries Discusses Gambling On Game

Five Teams Have Not Been Defeated

NEW YORK, Nov. 21—Yale's defeat by Harvard leaves Penn State, Lafayette, Cornell and Washington and Jefferson as the only undefeated major college eleven of the east this season.

LaFayette finished its season with a triumph over Lehigh and Yale's reverse was an occurrence unexpected by most of the so-called football experts. Cornell's Thanksgiving day game it with Penn; Washington and Jefferson will oppose West Virginia, and Penn State attacks University of Pittsburgh.

Penn State and Cornell each has won seven games, Washington and Jefferson eight and Lafayette nine.

Captain Malcolm Adair, of Yale, continues the leading point scorer, the field goal he kicked against Harvard making his point total eighty-six.

There is probably no greater factor that tends to demoralize, undermine or create a destructive influence on athletes than that of gambling. Betting on the games at first thought is looked upon as a significance of supreme confidence in the home team, but it is just a matter of time until the better is betting on his team strictly for the money that is at stake. Through habit and greed he does not hesitate to bet on the rival team, for, according to advance dope he feels that the other team is superior and he has no scruples on whom his money is placed. What he is after is the winning of the stakes. So it makes no difference on which team he is betting, the principle is "betting and losing," that which we most desire in our town and school athletics, loyalty in the athletic unadulterated form. The winning of the game for the game's sake and not for the financial gain.

Cannonville Fans Staggered By Size Of Crowd

But speaking of crowds wasn't that a pipin yesterday? There were more than 3,000 paid admissions, which is conclusive proof that football is getting to be very popular in this man's town. And it is not going to be killed by the cowardly methods pursued by the Tanks who will turn any scum trick to win. Local fans are loyal to the Blue and White team, who presented their regular line up and respected their eligible list.

Shannon And Hammond Are Real Stars

Shannon proved himself to be one of the best backfield men seen here in a long time. He is very fast, follows his interference closely and is an open field runner of the Davies type. And when it comes to kicking he is there with a wicked toe. Hammond proved a great running mate and supplied the brains for the rest of the slow thinking heavy-footed Tanks. Candidly speaking outside of the work of these two players Bill Brooks & Company did not show a thing.

Hecky Was There
The defeat of the Blue and White team did not prevent Devoss from putting up his usual stellar game in the backfield. He made many good gains and his tackling was hard and sure.

ATTENTION K. OF C'S.

Dance and Progressive Euchre at Winter Garden Wednesday evening 8:30 to 11:30.

Stage Kicking Game

The Blue and White squad clearly outplayed the Tanks in the first period when the visitors essayed a kicking game in the hopes of Portsmouth footballing in Trouton territory. Eight straight times Shannon punted on the first down.

Davies On Sidelines

The way the Tanks lined up yesterday they have the heaviest team in captivity. The line averages over 190 pounds and the back field was not light by any means. Davies captained the team from the sidelines. He had no business being in the game with fellows like Hammond and Shannon at work. They can play rugs around Davies.

We can insure your Automobile, Trucks, Tractors and any property. J. W. INMAN.

Band Was Winded

Where was Trouton's band they yelled so much about? Yes, where was it? As one fan said they winded them selves talking about coming and had no wind left to play. Some truth in this. And less than 100 came on the special. Where were the Lions fans they were going to send down? That old full fare stopped them in their tracks.

"Chinny" Is O. K.

Capt Chinny was not badly injured in yesterday's game and was around as usual last evening. He hopes to book a game for next Sunday and say that it is too early to close the season.

State Is Proud Of Fine Record

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21—Ohio State University has been in Western Conference football competition for nine years, and although the "Buckeye" of the big ten, has the record of having the best winning average of any team in during this time.

Ohio State has won 25 games, lost 10 and tied one in that time.

Illinois in these nine years has the second best record, with 20 victories, 13 defeats and five ties. Chicago has won 20 and lost 21 with two ties. Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin are the only other conference eleven that have won over half their games since 1912. Michigan won 7 and lost 8, and having been in the conference all of these years.

Ross Was Here

Ross Blackwell accompanied the Trouton fans here Sunday and met many old friends. He played here many years ago and always was a warm spot in his heart for Portsmouth.

DISREGARDING IRON-BOUND ELIGIBLE LIST TANKS IMPORT COLLEGE STARS AND BEAT SMOKEHOUSE ELEVEN, 1 TO 0

Visitors Score Two Touchdowns, But Referee Forfeits Game To Tanks; Receipts Of Visitors Held Up; Big Crowd At Game

Playing big college football by resorting to a punting game, the most of the first half, while their opponents were themselves out playing straight football, the Ironton Tanks triumphed over the Smoke House eleven on Millbrook gridiron Sunday afternoon, the visitors sweeping the speed land players before them when they started to play straight football. The official score, according to the referee, was 1 to 0, on account of Portsmouth forfeiting by refusing to finish the game, although darkness had settled over the gridiron sometime before. It was a real battle, the visitors making two touchdowns while the locals were kept out of Ironton territory by the visitors punting almost always on the first down, no matter if the ball was just inside their 40 yard line. By this kind of game the Tanks showed plainly they feared the locals and would not take a chance on their remaining inside their territory. The game was witnessed by the biggest crowd that ever attended a gridiron game in this section of the state, hundreds of fans attending who had not been out to a game this year. The crowd was estimated at 4,000, with most of them $3 admissions.

On You Imported Players

The victory for Ironton was due to the fine work of the imported stars, Hammond at quarterback, Shannon, halfback, and Blevins at guard. The bulk of the work fell on these three players and due credit should be given them for the kind of game they played. The native Ironton players in the game, outside of Progger, did not do a thing that brings them mention. Progger is a good player and Ironton has a right to be proud of him. In comparison the Smoke House used perfectly all Portsmouth players instead of importing college stars from here and there. Portsmouth used the same players against Ironton as they did several weeks ago at Ironton and fully expected Ironton to put about the same team in the field. Such was not the case, however, the visitors having imported a new backfield, with Hammond at quarterback as the main eye and brain of the machine.

As soon as Captain Quinn noticed Hammond on the field he protested to Ironton manager and it was about 15 minutes before Manager Harry Decker finally consented to let Ironton go ahead with their "ringers," adding that he certainly did not expect such a "cocked" deal out of Bill Brooks and his supposed friends.

The late start and the taking of so much time out for injured players showed darkness to settle on the field before the third quarter was finished. About half of the last quarter was played when the game was forfeited. Coach Han Fries of the local team, ordering his team to halt play, on their refusal to begin play in two minutes, the game was forfeited to Ironton.

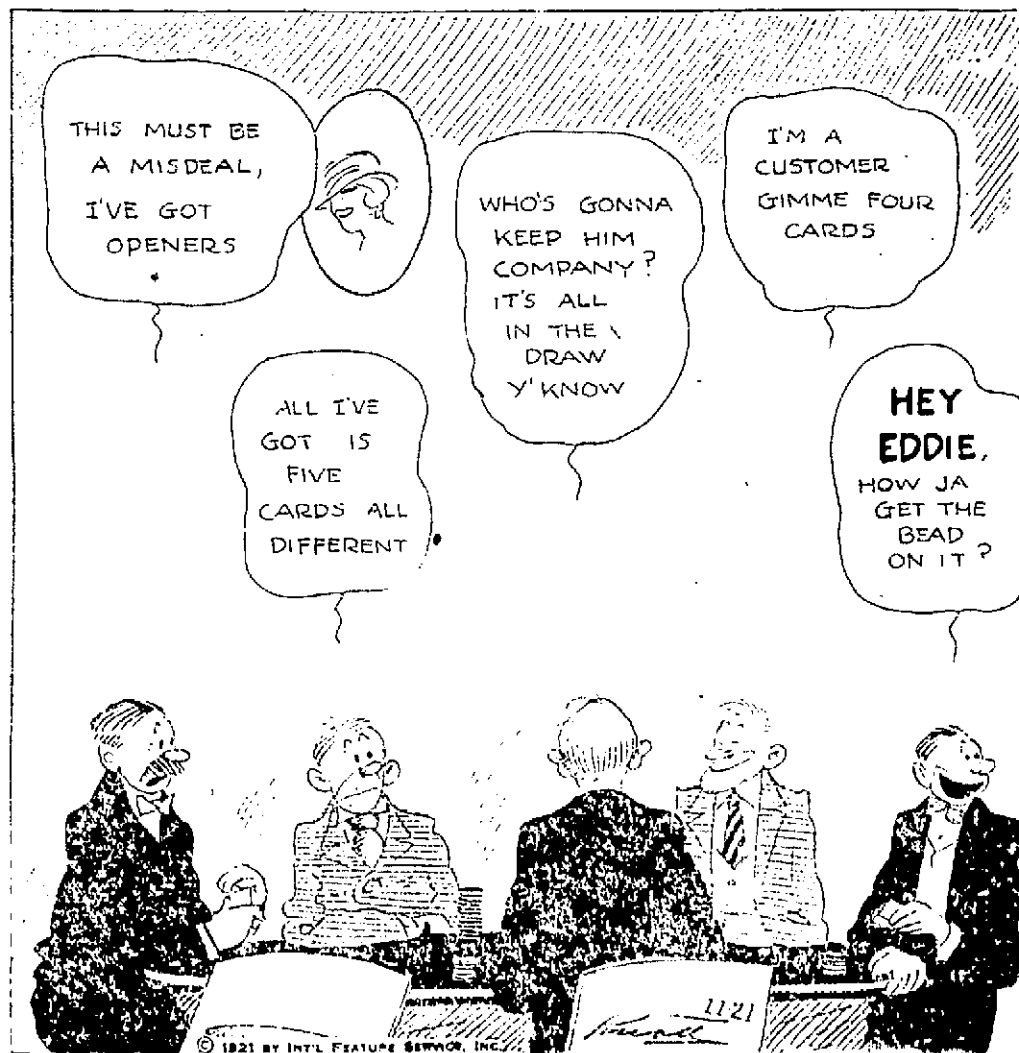

Ironton Kicks

It started with Ironton choosing to kick. Hanley received on the 2 yard line and ran the ball back 21 yards. Quinn made 1 yard on a line buck.

ball sailing far over Ironton's goal. The ball was put in play by Ironton on their 20 yard line.

Ironton punted on first down to DeVoss who fumbled and recovered. On the next play DeVoss dropped the ball as he plugged through the line and Ironton recovered. Ironton punted but this time the ball was only advanced about 3 yards. Portsmouth almost blocking the punt. Portsmouth failed to gain on a line buck and was penalized 5 yards for offense. The next play was a forward pass which fell into Taylor's hands. The ball being good for 12 yards. Line bucks failed to gain and it was Ironton's ball on their 35 yard line. Ironton punted on first down to the local's 35 yard line.

Three line bucks failed to net more than 7 yards and Quinn punted to Ironton's 37 yard line. Ironton punted on first down to the local's 40 yard line. DeVoss hit the line for 7 yards. Quinn failed to gain and when a forward pass was tried Progger caught it and as he was being tackled Ironton recovered the ball on the local's 42 yard line.

Punt 8 Times

Ironton had punted eight times on first downs up until this time and when notified only four minutes were left to play in the first half. Started right playing. Poole crashed through the line for 4 yards. Hammond requested for 4 and then 2 making first down.

Progger bucked the line for 3 yards and Shannon 1 yard. Poole hit the line for 5 yards and first down. Prior was knocked out on the tackle. Hanley was replaced by Quinn. Poole was again sent thru the line and he made 3 yards. Boudell was sent in to replace Poole. The new man made the mistake of talking to one of the Tanks before a play was made and Ironton was penalized 15 yards for a new player communicating information from the sidelines. From a punt formation, Shannon received the pignskin and made a 28 yard run to the local's 5 yard line where Taylor brought him down. Had Shannon not stepped on the outside line he would have probably reached the goal. Mendell hit the line for 4 yards carrying the ball to Portsmouth's 1 yard line. A line buck resulted in no gain but on the next play Boudell was given the ball and he went over the line just a few inches. Progger kicked goal.

Dempsey replaced Blevins at guard for Ironton. Ironton kicked. Captain Quinn receiving on the 10 yard line. He advanced the ball 17 yards before being downed. On the next play DeVoss broke through on end for a 19 yard gain.

Quinn hit the line for 5 yards. Quinn 2, Taylor 1 and DeVoss 2 and another first down. A forward pass failed and another one was attempted, but Progger intercepted it and ran 27 yards to the local's 25 yard line. DeVoss making the tackle. Had DeVoss raised his man Progger would have easily made a touchdown as he had a clear field. An end run netted 7 yards and placed the ball within striking distance of the goal. A line buck by Progger was good for 3 yards and first down on the local's 15 yard line. A pass was good for 5 yards and as the first half ended Ironton had the ball on the local's 10 yard line.

DeVoss received on the 32 yard line. Line bucks netted only 6 yards and Quinn punted to Ironton's 42 yard line. Progger made 8 yards on an end run, a line buck failed to gain but on the next play Hammond gained 5 yards and first down. A line plunge was good for 3 yards and 1 yard and then a pass failed. Portsmouth was penalized 15 yards for roughing the passer. This gave Ironton the ball on the local's 20 yard line. Ironton was filled with the old pep now, having Portsmouth in the shadow of its own. A line buck netted 2 yards, but Ironton was penalized 5 yards for a fumble. A pass was good for 9 yards, a line plunge 4 and Progger hit the line for 2 yards and first down putting the ball on the local's 4 yard line.

Mendell was then given the ball and he crashed thru the line for a touchdown. Progger kicked goal.

Ironton kicked the ball, sailing almost the goal line where Mendell fumbled, but picked the pignskin up on the goal line and then ran it back 11 yards before being downed. DeVoss made 5 yards on an end run, but on the next two plays no gain was made and Quinn punted. He fumbled the ball and just got the punt away in time to prevent it from being blocked. Quinn was roughed by Ironton player and had to be taken from the game on account of injuries received. McWilliams went to Adams' end and Adams went to full. The punt was good for 40 yards and gave Ironton the ball in the middle of the field. Ironton was penalized 5 yards for offense.

Line Bucks Fail
Two line bucks failed and the next play was a forward pass intercepted by Portsmouth for their own 38 yard line. Hanley made 3 yards and a fumble lost 5 yard. A line buck failed to gain and Portsmouth punted to the local's 32 yard line. Ironton punted to the local's 42 yard line. A buck failed. Montgomery fumbled a forward pass and then DeVoss gained 6 yards. Hanley fumbled and it was Ironton's ball, Hanley being in a position to punt. Ironton fumbled on the first play and lost 7 yards. It was growing dark and it was hard to see the ball. Ironton worked a successful pass good for 18 yards, placing the ball on the local's 7 yard line, as the third quarter ended. Ironton on the next three plays lost 10 yards and it was the local's ball on the 17 yard line. Portsmouth tried long end runs under the cover of darkness, but on two plays lost 22 yards and the local's best to limit the ball going to the middle of the field where play was halted and the game was forfeited.

Play Here With Tanks To Play Against Them On Turkey Day

The Tanks have two more games on their schedule. They play Marshall College in Ironton on Thanksgiving Day and Wellston at home next Sunday. And when they stack against Marshall College they will face Hammond and Shannon and these same champs played with Ironton yesterday. Isn't that a nice mixup? First they play with one team, then against the same team and then for both of these teams. What do you think about Huntington's brand of so-called college football?

Fist Fights Enliven Game

There were a dozen fist fights during the progress of the game yesterday and as many after it. The Ironton fans were so jubilant that they became insulting and more than one was knocked down. A big scrap took place in East Portsmouth after the game and considerable blood was spilled.

Juniors To Play New Boston Hi

Thursday morning starting about ten o'clock the Smoke House Juniors will clash with the New Boston high school eleven on the Millbrook gridiron. New Boston high played a wonderful game Saturday when they held the local school eleven to a scoreless tie. The Aid team will outwrestle the Smoke House Juniors and after holding Saturday's visitors New Boston feels able to hold the Juniors.

New Boston will also have the added strength of Mays, Davis and King in the backfield. These men have quit school and when they left the team lost considerable weight. The New Boston school will use practically the same lineup as was used in the first game of the season. With Mays, Davis and King in the backfield, Henson, Staten and Elliott who have been on the halves and fullback positions will again shift to the line where they started the season.

Couch Stevens of New Boston high has great faith in his eleven and feels confident they will easily defeat the Smoke House Juniors.

Sciotoville Selects Win Easily

Shooting baskets in mid-season form the Sciotoville Selects won over the Rosemont Stars in Whitehouse hall Saturday night by a score of 34 to 12. The Sciotoville team had things their way most of the game as the score indicates. The Selects have organized a first team this year and are ready to take on any team in this section, players being former high school stars. This is Rosemont's first year to have a basketball team and lack of practice lost them this game.

The Stars missed many baskets and a little more practice is all they need to be on even terms with the Junior team of the section. Lowell the Sciotoville forward made most of the points for his team, making 11 baskets. Time after time this lad took the ball up the floor for baskets and shot from all angles of the floor. The Selects showed stellar team work over their opponents and their defensive style of play was good. Brown's work at guard stood out as the guarding feature of the game.

Robinson of Rosemont made 10 of the 12 points for his team. On the Thursday night the Selects will play Kent's Specials in the high school gym and Dec. 17 they will play the Winchester Selects at Winchester and this promises to be one of the best games of the season.

Babe Grinned And Said, Wee Wee

NEW YORK, Nov. 21—Babe Ruth, the home run king, today was the proud possessor of the brick which will be the first one laid in the new Knights of Columbus headquarters building. He received it yesterday from the hands of Marshal Forb, of France.

Archbishop Patrick J. Hayes acted as interpreter between the French leader and Ruth at the ceremony on the steps of St. Patrick's cathedral. "I am glad that we are both members of the Knights of Columbus," the marshal said. "I wish we could have you introduce baseball in France."

The Babe grinned and said: "Wee, wee."

SIDELINE CHATTER

It was anything to beat Portsmouth. But it will prove to be a costly victory for Ironton. Without the two big crowds Portsmouth draws every season they cannot make expenses in Taubtown. The receipts of the Tanks-Lambtown game only reached $100.

Referee Thomas and Umpire Beckelmeier handled the game in the shape. The saw every play and the fans approved their rulings.

Many Irontonians motored down and New Boston was literally cluttered with automobiles. Millbrook park was jammed with them.

Ackroyd and Saddler made some good tackles and Adams and Phillips were in on every play.

The crowd gathered early as the sidelines were jammed long before 2 o'clock. There was rooting, real rooting every inch of the way.

In practice Shannon punted 50, on and 70 yards.

It was a happy but moneyless crowd that returned to Cantonville last night.

Bill Brooks is famous for two things: the money he wrings out of the Ironton coffers and his neck wringing. He tried to put out Taylor on his first tackle yesterday, but Jimmy was too smooth for him.

The Ironton team was late reaching the field. They did not wait the fans to see their ringers.

Cap. Chinn, Hanley, Quinn and Taylor played hang up ball in all departments. The Ironton men were all there with the goals and the line and while would have won had the Tanks come on the field with the regular club.

Held Brooks Safe

It was refreshing to see how often Brooks was put out of the way of the runner. He was hit so hard and often that he was all in when the game ended. And as a neck wringer he beat 1,000. All of his tackles are the best of his type and one of those days he will spin the wrong head. The fans loved him yesterday and kept after him all the day.

Juniors Saved The Day. Beat Panthers

A decided luck was taken in the Ironton-Whitwell Panthers' tri-state championship ribbon by the Smoke House Juniors when the local eleven won a 12 to 7 victory over the Tanks town eleven on the Industrial League lot Sunday morning before a crowd of nearly 500 fans. The game was not football all the way through, considerable time being given to "debate" by Referee George Pearce as the judge. The local suffered a 9 to 0 defeat at the hands of the Panthers two weeks ago, but gained revenge Sunday morning. Considerable credit goes to Cleverger and Woods for the victory for these two players gained more yardage than the entire Panther eleven. Woods is the new fullback on the Junior eleven and he showed his form in line bucks. Cleverger starred on his snafus through the line, one of his line rushes resulting in the winning touchdown.

Ironton's scored first in the second quarter when Quarterback Gould intercepted an Ironton pass and ran 39 yards to Ironton's 7 yard line.

Line bucks and snafus carried the ball across with Gould in possession of the pignskin. Smith failed to kick goal.

The Panthers laying claim to the tri-state championship did not lose any of their fight, but tried all the harder and with only a few minutes of the first half to play intercepted a Juniors' pass and the receiver dashed 27 yards down the field to the local's 5 yard line, where he was finally caught by Cleverger. The play was the same kind that Portsmouth scored on an intercepted pass, a long run and then several line bucks. It took Ironton four line bucks to put the ball over from the 5 yard line. Frecka carried the ball over. Goal was kicked making the score 7 to 6 in favor of the Panthers.

In the second half Shreick went to quarter and Gould to end. Portsmouth gained an advantage on a punt which was fumbled by Ironton in mid-field. From that point Portsmouth moved steadily on to the Panther goal. Cleverger caught a long pass, then made a long run and with the help of gains by Woods and Itinerary the ball was placed on the 8 yard line from where Cleverger went through for a touchdown. Cleverger shook off several Ironton tacklers in his "drive" for the goal. He was not downed until he was five yards past the goal posts. Smith failed to kick goal. The Panthers showed some new life after Portsmouth took the lead and they had the ball on the local's 15 yard line when the game ended.

Robert, half-back, and Reiser, guard, from the Cardinal eleven, also played a fine brand of football for the winners. Hewitt also starred in tackling and recovering fumbles.

The Panthers' line shift play which was for them the last time did not prove as effective this time, the local eleven getting through almost every time it was used, the man carrying the ball being thrown for a loss.

Blair, Adams, Gould and Montgomery also put up a fine game.

Ironton Puts Up Jack For High Priced Birds

The field never looked prettier than yesterday. The goal posts were dotted up in the colors of the teams and the field was jammed with spectators. And you can bet the fans are for the Blue and White team to a man. They know they did not get a square deal yesterday. Ironton's alibi was that they had no quarter and would have to play Hammond. Where was Progger, the regular quarter? Right in the game. The team could not pull the wool over the eyes of the Smoke House players. What they should have done is refuse to play until Hammond, Shannon and Blevins were sent to the sidelines, where they belong. The local team is not given to alibis. It does not offer them for defeat. The Tanks know we can beat their regular team and that is why they rustled up three high priced players, men who received not less than $100 and their expenses yesterday.

Fictitious Names For Shannon And Blevins

It is admittedly true that two serious mistakes were made yesterday.

When it was learned definitely that the Tanks had three ringers the Blue and White team should not have played, unless the visitors removed these players and lived up to their agreement.

The second mistake is that Referee Thomas should have declared all bets off as soon as he was told that Ironton had imported ringers and thereby had broken their contract. And listen, fans, the Ironton management to cover up their small town stuff, which beautifully typifies Ironton, they gave fictitious names for Shannon and Blevins. They gave Blevins' name as Fritz to the Times man, who at the time knew better and notified Capt. Chinn and Shannon's name as Hall.

Full plays with the Lombards and is an Ironton man. The Tanks thought the locals were so gullible that they would not discover that Hall was not in the game and the man sailing under his name was Shannon. It was so palpably rotten that Ironton fans had to laugh.

"Say, bo, who are those guys in the back field?" an Ironton fan asked some of his friends at the game yesterday.

"Search me, Bill. I don't know where they dug up those birds," was his reply.

"Can you beat it? Even the Ironton fans were not in on the wholesale importation."

Why Hat Is Always Passed In Ironton

Now, fans, you know that Ironton will not support any kind of a team very long. If they do it is one round of Booster Days and hat passing.

Instead of giving players at home a chance they go out and get some high priced birds and first thing you know they are hopelessly in debt. That is exactly what happened in their Ohio

State league days and now the same thing is taking place in a football way. The team is said to be $800 in the hole before yesterday's game started. The Blue and White team has money in the bank.

It was reported last night that Shannon was to get $200 and Hammond and Blevins $100 each. It is a clutch they cut deep into Ironton's share of the game if Ironton gets any share. And Brooks gets his every week and there is Love and Davies, who you bet are getting their portion.

So you can see what the Tanks are up against. Why they had a Booster Day and went around to the Chamber of Commerce for a good fat donation before the season was hardly under way.

P. H. S. PLAYS LAST GAME THURSDAY

has always been in every game to win for his dear school. If this lad gains a little weight he will certainly be heard from in college circles in a year or two. He likes the game and has always done his share to carry his burden of the game.

Jimmy Gower is playing his first and last year for P. H. S. and it is with great that he passes into history as far as high school is concerned. He would surely be a great asset to his school next year.

Mertz played in a few games last year and more than held his own during this season. He had an off day at Chellico last week but he intends to redeem himself in his last game Thursday.

Brook is playing his first year and is supposed to graduate this year. If Duke Good Fortune favors him, he has played well this season, but has had some trouble "getting by" in all his studies. He is carrying a heavy

POOR VISION CAUSES WASTE

It looks almost as though the newspaper headlines were in a unanimous conspiracy to delude and mislead the public in regard to the arms limitation program presented to the conference by Secretary Hughes.

According to their lettering the nations other than our's are fairly falling over themselves in approval and adoption of the Hughes proposal. And about all that is left to do is to sign up and return home. A half reading of their comments will convince they are far, very far, from doing anything of the sort. The representatives of the various governments being all diplomats, of course, express themselves diplomatically and commend most graciously the noble spirit of the proposal, but they also diplomatically provide escape from actual acceptance. England heartily applauds—but suggests completion of her present building schedule first and a shorter "holiday." Japan is sure the honorable plans of the honorable secretary do great credit to his honorable country—but hints there ought to be qualifications when it comes to scrapping any of the armament. France elegantly approves—but France being so weak in ships should be agreed by her dear friends to build more and Italy is so poor—but she ought to be stranger.

There is no actual, no unconditional acceptance from any quarter. Still there is no presage from that condition that the conference will not be of vastly beneficial result. The American administration, it is to be hoped, was not so stupid as to believe its proposals would be immediately accepted. It doubtless prepared them with some idea to home consumption.

There will be much conferring and maneuvering, but in the end something substantial will come out of it all. It has got to. All the peoples are crying relief from the ruination of immense armament and equally forceful all the other conferees are debtors of the United States and they have got to concede much to her.

IN FAIRNESS TO THE PEOPLE

It is no new thing to be told of the commonness of defective eyesight in the United States. Repeatedly statements have been issued by health authorities concerning the measures necessary for keeping the vision unimpaired. This advice has been directed to individuals and related to the care of their own eyes. The subject is approached from another angle in a report which has just been issued by the American engineering council's committee on elimination of waste in industry, a report which merits the earnest study of all large employers of labor.

The committee finds it will be to employers' advantage to protect the eyesight of their workers because of the increased production which will thus be made possible. There is much waste in industry—avoidable waste—because the vision of employees is not conserved. Of 10,000 workers examined in factories and commercial houses 53 per cent were found to have uncorrected faulty eyesight. Of the rejections in the army during the war 21.7 per cent were because of eye trouble. Men and women cannot do their best work when thus handicapped.

Proper illumination is suggested as one of the ways in which improvement can be effected. That it pays to have the workshop adequately lighted has been shown by the experience of several factories mentioned by the committee. Betterment of the lighting system has increased output two per cent in steel plants and as much as 10 per cent in shoe factories. One estimate is that the loss in production due to faulty eyesight is greater than the entire cost of illumination in this country and it is asserted that the cost of providing proper lighting in every industrial plant in the United States would be less than one per cent of the wages paid.

Such a loss as the committee attributes to bad eyesight is not to be ignored and if it can be avoided by so comparatively small an expenditure as is indicated it is downright stupidity to permit it to continue.

Finest climate on earth. Sunday it snowed, Monday it rained, Tuesday was as balmy as May and Wednesday and Thursday the heavens opened up their flood gates, while Friday, just in time for the big Methodist turkey supper, the stars twinkled forth and the man in the moon could be seen laughing gleefully, at the soft breezes he was waving over the earth. Variety is the spice of climate as well as of life.

Papa Poch is evidently having the time of his fair young life in America and the more America sees of him the fonder it grows of him.

No, siree, not even in these hard (ing) times can you stop the onward march of the city whose possibilities are unlimited. Hear that talk of a new factory coming here. 'Tisn't a big one to be sure, but that doesn't matter much for it is coming where it can grow.

It is coming out at last—that this talk of war with Japan is set agoing by those who are not friends at heart of these United States.

Portsmouth has more than one mile of paved streets for every thousand inhabitants. That is not bad at all.

And the funny thing about it is that Uncle Henry never made any declaration, directly or indirectly, to the river convention that he was going to change boating conditions on the Ohio.

The district attorney of New York complains that bootleggers have defrauded the government out of $30,000,000 taxes. Wonder if he expected the gentry to be patriotic enough to walk up to the captain's office and settle?

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, November 21.—A page from the diary of a modern Scoundrel says: Lay late; This day my wife, poor wretch, good naturedly instanced many of my frailties and I am resolved to labour more diligently. Came A. Dwan and E. Selwyn to tell of a trip they are to make shortly to India to make a cinema play and I wish I might go.

After breakfast, by Dr. Dorsey's lucky advice, I went to an auction and got a great writing table with many drawers and a soft chair for 5 pounds, which put my heart into great joy. V. Porter told me of M. Nicholson, the Indiana pamphleteer, being in the city ill and I called to see him but found him away.

Home where Grace Corson, the fashion blunder, came and drew a picture for our guest book and so at my elate, doing many things that should have been done months ago.

In the evening to the invitation performance of Billie Burke's play and found her delightful, also Mr. Lunt. Saw there Misses Marlowe, Mr. Seaborn, Frank Craven, Marjorie Lamborn, Al Johnson, Lionel Barrymore, Victor Herbert and P. Ziegfeld, who made sport of my gay surfeit. So to bed.

Peter Maher, hallowed by blessed memories, is now working for the city along New York's docks. Twenty years ago, a brother of a boy, black browed and blue eyed, he was the idol of the pugilistic world. He packed a mighty punch and his brogue and sunny smile endeared him to a fickle public. He reigned in the days of Bob Fitzsimmons and Tom Sharkey and once gave the latter a fearful drubbing.

A New York wife declares that she hobbed her hair so that she might go to the barber shop with her hubby. O, yes, she was a newwired.

A block on West Fifty-Seventh street directly off Fifth Avenue, has become New York's glittering rue de la Paix. It has become the sacred pasture of the rich shoppers. The little shops are in private mansions and laden with the intoxicating flair of wealth. They are as quiet as a museum, thickly carpeted and only tiny brass signs herald the name. The street is lined with expensive motors. Now and then a brougham drives up and shy old ladies step forth to be received with great deference by the uniformed doorman. The doorman knows his New York. The salmon pink limousine may shelter a chorus girl but the brougham invariably means Knickerbocker aristocracy.

One o'clock Sing Hoy has returned to Chinatown. He is a drollish Chinese who came there long before Church Corners and his pearl gray derby. Every night at 1 o'clock he would go to a little shop in Pell street and read a chapter from the Bible that he kept in the back room. He never explained why he performed this nocturnal ritual. Two years ago he disappeared. It was whispered that a Tong war was too blame. He came back as mysteriously as he left. "Jus' been all same away" was his laconic comment. And again he is making his nightly pilgrimage to the little shop in Pell street.

On the Bowery are "refresher shops" where unfortunates may go and exchange a fair pair of shoes for shoes beyond repair and get 10 or 15 cents in case. Just now the "refresher shops" are doing a flourishing business.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES

Rich But Awful Portions of the Globe

The stretches of the West Coast of Africa for ten degrees along either side of the Equator, are not pleasant for white men, nor is the region drained by the Niger River. From Sierra Leone to Ashanti, and on through Senegal to the French Congo, none who skin is white do not thrive. "Hout and horror" dwell there the year around under blazing suns and torrid heat. No wound in the flesh of a white man will heal, and "no white child may be born" there.

But England has found great wealth in her colonies there, and wherever wealth is, white men will brave all the terrors of climates, jungle, beasts, venomous serpents and poisonous insects. The call of riches is never neglected by the modern civilization anywhere.

Even along the Equator, through the dense forests of interior Africa to the South on the East Coast, on over the Indian Ocean to Sumatra and Borneo, countless stories come from these places of mysterious deaths, horrible superstitions, and burials in hot earth so saturated with water in the Niger country that mourners have to stand on the skulls of their friends until they can be weighed down beneath a foot or two of surface soil. Slaughter may ultimately be established in these places when education has put barbarous ignorance to flight. Until then the white men who leave them to add to the business resources of their countries and to enrich themselves will pay dreadful toll in disease, in frightful experiences and in death.

Mutual Savings Banks
All but 26 of the 923 mutual savings banks in the country are located in New England and eastern states. Their reports to the Controller of the Currency show an increase both in deposits and the number of depositors for the year ending June 30.

This is regarded as surprising at Washington considering the conditions which existed there during the period, but it is not always true that when the break comes in a period of high wages and extravagance, people awaken to the menace of an uncertain future, and turn suddenly to saving.

However, that may be, the information published by the Controller is reassuring to those who have sought to educate the public in thrift. A report from all institutions carrying savings accounts, including building and loan associations, the home building enterprises of many states, would be equally interesting and satisfying as well, we believe.

In matters of economy as in politics, thought and action usually have the same general trend in the country, thanks to a press which includes in its service the impulses of the whole people. That the country is inclined to saving in the teeth of hard times is proof of a wholesome sentiment which promises a speedy return to prosperity.

morals. They create distrust, uncertainty and fear, which are always enemies of commercial activity.

In the presidential primaries last year the Democratic delegation of New Jersey was awfully wet and for a wet candidate, first, last and all the time; and New Jersey is normally a Democratic state. This year prohibition enforcement was the all-absorbing issue in the election of the New Jersey legislature. The Democrats favored a wet assembly, the Republicans a dry one—and the dry side won, in what has been regarded as the wettest state in the Union.

"All quiet along the Potomac," they say, "where a group of men have set out to trim the claws of war, and it may be to establish national policies that will end war on earth between civilized peoples.

Photographs of Mars.
More than 100,000 photographs of Mars have been taken at the Lowell observatory, Flagstaff, Ariz. Numerous exposures are made on each plate with the expectation of getting the moments of best definition of the planet.

IF YOU ARE WELL BREED

You will not make formal calls at intervals of less than a month or more than a year.

You will call on a stranger before inviting her to accompany you to an entertainment.

You will not consult your watch or other time manifest impudence when making a call.

You will not give favors, except tiny bouquets, at luncheons.

THE DAYS OF REAL SPORT—BY BRIGGS

With a clasp on her head like a cage for her hair.

She sits all day on a stiff little chair. And she answers the calls that come over the wire.

From people of patience and people of fire. And "Number 7" she queries of noble or churl?—A wonderful voice has the telephone girl.

She has to be pleasant, and bustling and keen. With a temper unruffled and ever serene.

There are forty-five things she must think of at once. Or someone, impatient, will call her a dunce. Since it seems a general custom to hurl The blame for your grouch on the telephone girl.

It's wearisome work on the nerves and the brain: Continual hurry, continual strain.

And of course she gets tired as other folks do—And needs to be thoughtfully treated by you.

So think of her doing her best mid the whirl, And try to be white to the telephone girl.

What Others
Julia—"Now, tell the truth, do men like the talkative women as well as they do the others?" Jack—"What others?"

Turned Out All Right
"Why, Thomas, what are you home for?" asked the boy's father. "It isn't holiday time is it?"

"No," replied Thomas, looking round the place. "I thought you were not coming home until the end of the term."

"Changed my mind," was the reply of the young hopeful. "And I'm not going back, either."

"Not going back? Why, how's that?" "Don't like it there," replied Thomas. "I thought it was a nice school."

"Yes, I know that," returned Thomas. "I know that, but school has turned out some of the finest and smartest men in this country."

"Yes, I know that," returned Thomas. "I know that, but school has turned out some of the finest and smartest men in this country."

Remembered The Charge
The attorney for the gas company was making a popular address. "Think of the good the gas company has done," he cried. "If I were permitted to pun, I would say, in the words of the immortal poet, 'Honor the Light Brigade.'"

Voice of Consumer (from the audience): "Oh, what a charge they made!"

The Important Point
"How does he get along with his wife?" "Fine, I guess. They seem to agree on everything. Why, they even smoke the same brand of cigarettes."

"That doesn't mean anything. Who smokes them first?"

Chiropractic Makes Perfect
Hastus—"Feller, why for yo'all dabbin' wid dis here osteopathy?" Sambo—"Cause Ah done read in a book dis osteopathy done treat ob de manipulin' ob bones and de onliest parality Ah's got is humori' de gallop' dominos to pass in review."

Cautious
Lawyer—"Would you vouch for the defendant's integrity?" Witness—"We-ced, not exactly, but I ain't never catched him at nothing."

Pearls Before Swine
North—"Would you like a job as prohibition enforcement officer?" West—"No, I don't drink—but thanks just the same."

Instat Upon Injury
"That was tough luck about Bill Bootleg."

"Yeh, wasn't it? To go and get a year for sellin' a pint of hooch after just finishin' four months for killin' his wife."

Hot Towel!
"They do say as how Hiram got in a terrible scrape when he was in the West."

"Yup, musta been terrible, all right. He got shaved by a female lulu barber."

Wise Jottings
The ostrich feathers the best of the owner.

A bad imitation is often better than the real thing.

Revenge is always sweet when compared to the bitterness of hate.

Some men have such happy dispositions that they never amount to much.

Shortly after love begins to wax logical it proceeds to bump the bumps.

While correcting your discolored offering it might be well to remember that you did not die young.
